INTRODUCTION

This introduction and particulars are intended to give a fair and substantially correct overall description for the guidance of the intending purchasers and do not constitute part of an offer or contract. No responsibility is assumed for the accuracy of individual items.

SITUATION/LOCATION

Highfields is well located for easy access to the A134, south of Colchester and north of Sudbury.

The private road that leads to Highfields Farm is a byway marked by some mature oak trees and the whole property benefits from views out across the Stour Valley into Essex, all of which forms part of the Stour Valley/Dedham Vale AONB. The property itself is however just outside the AONB.

DESCRIPTION

A substantial 5 bedroom farmhouse built in the mid 1980's surrounded by mature attractive gardens. The property offers a good level of accommodation and benefits from full double glazing and a large conservatory overlooking part of the garden.
